

Deck the House

Deck the house with Christmas lights

Fa -- la, la -- la, la -- la, la -- la.

Won't this neighborhood be a sight.

Fa, la, la -- la, la -- la, la -- la, la.

Put lights in the shrubs and lights in the trees.

Fa -- la, la -- (as above)

We'll decorate the house the way we darn well please.

Fa, la, la -- la, la (as above)

We'll have Frosty the Snowman a-drinkin' a beer.

Santa in a sleigh with a bunch of reindeer.

We'll put Rudolph in the lead with a blinkin' red nose,

We'll put a diaper on him and we'll paint his toes.

We'll give Joseph a Mohawk and a rude tattoo.

Mary in leather, and a beehive hair-do,

With boots and gloves and a ring through her nose.

The babe in tie-dyed baby clothes.

Lying in a manger in the corner of the lawn.

And we'll leave the lights turned on 'til dawn.

The wise dudes coming in to see the tyke

They'll all arrive by motorbike.

We'll have a Star of David with a Christmas bow

And a cross-legged Buddha on the patio

And if the neighbors don't like what we do

Why, they can just call the ACLU.

It's on private land, not a public display.

We can celebrate Christmas our own darn way.

So there.
